

The image displays three musical intervals on a single staff, each represented by two whole notes. The first interval is a diminished fourth, labeled with a flat and a superscripted 4 (°4). The second interval is a perfect fourth, labeled with a P4. The third interval is an augmented fourth, labeled with a sharp and a plus sign followed by 4 (+4). Below each interval is its name in plain text: "diminished fourth", "perfect fourth", and "augmented fourth".
